Captain's Report August 2024

ICL Mendip at home 26.07.24, we won all matches which put us in quite a strong position.

However, they had their revenge when we played Mendip (Away), 09.08.24, we lost all but one match, thanks to Linda, who got us one point. A very tough course, up hill, ball below feet to name but a few reasons!! We had to give many shots,

Wheathill Ladies Open/ Pairs Comp organised by Jen went very well, on a lovely day!

ICL Away v Cricket St Thomas, 13.08.24 we sadly lost 6-1 with Linda scoring winning again, it looks like CST has beaten us!

Senior Ladies Challenge Won by Jen Warmington, close second Lyn O'Neill and 3rd Nic Boyd!

ICL Home v Oake Manor 19.08.24. We won four ½ matches to 1 ½. A very pleasant game with lovely ladies. The result puts us in second place behind Cricket St Thomas, with 32 .5 points second place in Division 3.

WoP, we are applying for grant next year, after the success of this year 4 new ladies joined. Information sent to Mel for inclusion on the website. AS will fund a trophy and bursary for use by Ladies encouraged by Women on Par,

AS requested details of the next Handicap meeting, GM replied it was due to be held 2 days later

11.Seniors Section Report.

JW submitted a report

The Seniors match teams continue to have mixed fortunes although great success in the Ivor Lewis . Sadly marred by the attitude of one member of the Yeovil team I believe Andrew will or has contacted Yeovil GC. Long Sutton stipulating max handicap 28 for friendly match I have been playing friendly matches for many years and never heard of this ever strong desire to win I presume

12.Junior Section Report

JB reported

The juniors have only had their recent Open this month which went off smoothly on Sunday 25th with 26 players, a record number of entries. Gross winner with 72 was Sam from The Mendip and Jack from Wheathill his runner up. The Nett competition was won by Lucy from Wheathill with 88, nett 60 meaning she will be equal 4th on the National Leader Board for the Daily Telegraph/Justin Rose Junior Golf Championship. Three girls and three boys from their respective competitions join the Gross competitors in Portugal in December so I think she will have just missed out on being included but an excellent result, nonetheless. Also in the prizes for Wheathill were Elizabeth and Tate.

The juniors have a busy month coming up, 2 silverware competitions, Team Captains Challenge (first full junior team ever) and the last South Division League Event here at Wheathill.

13.AOB

The meeting finished at 18;15

The next meeting is scheduled for 25th September
